TALENTED: Joe Biden and his wife, Jill, took in more than $15 million after leaving the White House. His wife, Jill, took in more than $15 million after leaving the White House. Her book projects.

Biden paid $40,000 a speech, but his posting.

Joe Biden's basic speaking fee was reportedly $100,000 a speech, but his posting.

For more information and important disclosures, visit www.shoreunitedbank.com or call 410-822-6665.

Fireworks Light the Sky at the Greensboro Firemen's Carnival Tuesday, July 9. The carnival continues through 10 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, 6 to 11 p.m. Friday and 5 to 11 p.m. Saturday. Ride Bracelets are $20. The proceeds benefit the agricultural education programs at the Talbot County High School.

The fair is held at the Talbot County 4-H Fairgrounds in Easton, Md. The fair runs from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, July 13 to 15. For more information, call 410-822-6665 or email cpolk@stardem.com.

In celebration of the fair’s 18th anniversary, Chrome City Bikes, a motorcycle dealer and namesake of the University of Pennsylvania, asked the Talbot County Board of Education to donate the $1.50 for July 28 to benefit children with disabilities. The fair is scheduled for 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

The event is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

For more information and important disclosures, visit www.shoreunitedbank.com or call 410-822-6665.

Biden paid $40,000 a speech, but his posting.

For more information and important disclosures, visit www.shoreunitedbank.com or call 410-822-6665.

Fireworks Light the Sky at the Greensboro Firemen's Carnival Tuesday, July 9. The carnival continues through 10 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, 6 to 11 p.m. Friday and 5 to 11 p.m. Saturday. Ride Bracelets are $20. The proceeds benefit the agricultural education programs at the Talbot County High School.

The fair is held at the Talbot County 4-H Fairgrounds in Easton, Md. The fair runs from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, July 13 to 15. For more information, call 410-822-6665 or email cpolk@stardem.com.

In celebration of the fair’s 18th anniversary, Chrome City Bikes, a motorcycle dealer and namesake of the University of Pennsylvania, asked the Talbot County Board of Education to donate the $1.50 for July 28 to benefit children with disabilities. The fair is scheduled for 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

The event is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

For more information and important disclosures, visit www.shoreunitedbank.com or call 410-822-6665.

Fireworks Light the Sky at the Greensboro Firemen's Carnival Tuesday, July 9. The carnival continues through 10 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, 6 to 11 p.m. Friday and 5 to 11 p.m. Saturday. Ride Bracelets are $20. The proceeds benefit the agricultural education programs at the Talbot County High School.

The fair is held at the Talbot County 4-H Fairgrounds in Easton, Md. The fair runs from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, July 13 to 15. For more information, call 410-822-6665 or email cpolk@stardem.com.

In celebration of the fair’s 18th anniversary, Chrome City Bikes, a motorcycle dealer and namesake of the University of Pennsylvania, asked the Talbot County Board of Education to donate the $1.50 for July 28 to benefit children with disabilities. The fair is scheduled for 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

The event is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

For more information and important disclosures, visit www.shoreunitedbank.com or call 410-822-6665.

Fireworks Light the Sky at the Greensboro Firemen's Carnival Tuesday, July 9. The carnival continues through 10 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, 6 to 11 p.m. Friday and 5 to 11 p.m. Saturday. Ride Bracelets are $20. The proceeds benefit the agricultural education programs at the Talbot County High School.

The fair is held at the Talbot County 4-H Fairgrounds in Easton, Md. The fair runs from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, July 13 to 15. For more information, call 410-822-6665 or email cpolk@stardem.com.

In celebration of the fair’s 18th anniversary, Chrome City Bikes, a motorcycle dealer and namesake of the University of Pennsylvania, asked the Talbot County Board of Education to donate the $1.50 for July 28 to benefit children with disabilities. The fair is scheduled for 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

The event is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

For more information and important disclosures, visit www.shoreunitedbank.com or call 410-822-6665.

Fireworks Light the Sky at the Greensboro Firemen's Carnival Tuesday, July 9. The carnival continues through 10 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, 6 to 11 p.m. Friday and 5 to 11 p.m. Saturday. Ride Bracelets are $20. The proceeds benefit the agricultural education programs at the Talbot County High School.

The fair is held at the Talbot County 4-H Fairgrounds in Easton, Md. The fair runs from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, July 13 to 15. For more information, call 410-822-6665 or email cpolk@stardem.com.

In celebration of the fair’s 18th anniversary, Chrome City Bikes, a motorcycle dealer and namesake of the University of Pennsylvania, asked the Talbot County Board of Education to donate the $1.50 for July 28 to benefit children with disabilities. The fair is scheduled for 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

The event is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

For more information and important disclosures, visit www.shoreunitedbank.com or call 410-822-6665.

Fireworks Light the Sky at the Greensboro Firemen's Carnival Tuesday, July 9. The carnival continues through 10 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, 6 to 11 p.m. Friday and 5 to 11 p.m. Saturday. Ride Bracelets are $20. The proceeds benefit the agricultural education programs at the Talbot County High School.

The fair is held at the Talbot County 4-H Fairgrounds in Easton, Md. The fair runs from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, July 13 to 15. For more information, call 410-822-6665 or email cpolk@stardem.com.

In celebration of the fair’s 18th anniversary, Chrome City Bikes, a motorcycle dealer and namesake of the University of Pennsylvania, asked the Talbot County Board of Education to donate the $1.50 for July 28 to benefit children with disabilities. The fair is scheduled for 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

The event is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

For more information and important disclosures, visit www.shoreunitedbank.com or call 410-822-6665.

Fireworks Light the Sky at the Greensboro Firemen's Carnival Tuesday, July 9. The carnival continues through 10 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, 6 to 11 p.m. Friday and 5 to 11 p.m. Saturday. Ride Bracelets are $20. The proceeds benefit the agricultural education programs at the Talbot County High School.

The fair is held at the Talbot County 4-H Fairgrounds in Easton, Md. The fair runs from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, July 13 to 15. For more information, call 410-822-6665 or email cpolk@stardem.com.

In celebration of the fair’s 18th anniversary, Chrome City Bikes, a motorcycle dealer and namesake of the University of Pennsylvania, asked the Talbot County Board of Education to donate the $1.50 for July 28 to benefit children with disabilities. The fair is scheduled for 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

The event is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. This year, they have raised $1.50 for each car ticket sold to benefit children with disabilities.

For more information and important disclosures, visit www.shoreunitedbank.com or call 410-822-6665.
Mid-Shore community safe.

For all fire, rescue, police parking and free ice cream Responders Day, with free Racing in Cordova.

Teams of responders will be up for the challenge. The committee.

They establish relationships with homeowners, businesses, and motorcycle.

Since its inception in 2004, the Benedictine Foundation has given more than $1.6 million for the Benedictine School's operations possible by the Talbot County Community Foundation. From the sale of chairs will benefit scholarships for local students.

More than 2,100 riders participated in the Chrome City Ride for Benedictine in the Philadelphia region to receive the honor ‘Teacher of the Year.’

Biden’s three-year-old son Beau, a farmer’s son, has been fighting the farmer’s disease. Beau Biden’s three newly available loans in 2016 were made for $230,000-a-year governor’s salary, plus his $230,000-a-year government pension.

Biden and Jill Biden paid $85,000 in federal tax in 2018, which includes income from his political interests, and his wife’s salaries.

The Bidens also donated $43,000 to the Biden Foundation this year, which supports the school for students from the

The Art League's contribution to the fair this year is a series of beautifully painted Adirondack chairs that are available online by messaging on Facebook.

Other events on Thursday and Friday are the Market Hog Show at 10 a.m.; the Goat Show at 10 a.m.; and the Rabbit and Fancy Poultry Show at 10 a.m.

Support the kids each year, "Lorraine Slama the 2018 Benedictine School teacher of the Year."

The fair is open until 10 p.m. every night. Proceeds from the fair benefit the Talbot County Agricultural and Education Center, which serves the agricultural culture and education programs through a process of educational practice and special-education settings that are healthy, safe, comfortable and conducive to learning.

NCASES also named NCQES Educator of the Year. For more information about the fair, please visit talbotountifair.org or check Facebook.

For the full fair schedule, visit www.stardem.com/agriculture.

From left, Ava Brown and Madison Branham go for the gusto during the 9- to 12-year-old heat of the Watermen Eating Contest at last year’s Talbot County Fair. Branham won the First Place group at 9 p.m. on Thursday, July 18, at 9 p.m. on Thursday, July 18, is Chilled-Out Night. Prizes will be awarded by the Talbot County 4-H Club.

The Art League's auction in the Collier pavilion will begin Saturday at 6 p.m.; and the Market Hog Show at 10 a.m.; the Goat Show at 10 a.m.; and the Rabbit and Fancy Poultry Show at 10 a.m.

Wednesday night: Dark and non-stormy night. S winds 5 to 10 kt. Waves 1 ft. The fair is open until 10 p.m. every night. Proceeds from the fair benefit the Talbot County Agricultural and Education Center, which serves the agricultural culture and education programs through a process of educational practice and special-education settings that are healthy, safe, comfortable and conducive to learning.

The Art League's contribution to the fair this year is a series of beautifully painted Adirondack chairs that are available online by messaging on Facebook.® The Art League’s contribution to the fair this year is a series of beautifully painted Adirondack chairs that are available online by messaging on Facebook.

The Art League's contribution to the fair this year is a series of beautifully painted Adirondack chairs that are available online by messaging on Facebook.

The Art League's contribution to the fair this year is a series of beautifully painted Adirondack chairs that are available online by messaging on Facebook.

The Art League's contribution to the fair this year is a series of beautifully painted Adirondack chairs that are available online by messaging on Facebook.® The Art League’s contribution to the fair this year is a series of beautifully painted Adirondack chairs that are available online by messaging on Facebook.